Examples:

- Give to Direct Relief Funds for immigrant families (particularly undocumented and mixed status families, as well as unaccompanied minors)
- Provide unrestricted funding to immigrant-serving organizations, particularly those led by POCs

Examples:

- Adopt and equity lens in funding practices, recognizing that many communities will require more resources to recover
- Make deeper investments in organizations with more stable, multi-year funding
- Consider the impacts of trauma and toxic stress had on communities and encourage meaningful, authentic collaboration

Examples:

- Fund movement-building organizing work that centers leadership of immigrants and refugees
- Develop strengths-based strategies that lean more heavily on how we can build upon what communities bring to the table rather than focusing primarily on needs and challenges
- Create opportunities for immigrants and refugees to build their leadership and capacity through participatory grantmaking

Immigrant-focused Funding Opportunities in PA

PA IS READY Immigrant Relief Fund

Statewide fund to provide direct emergency assistance to people excluded from federal COVID-19 assistance programs due to their immigration status or the immigration status of a family member and are in need of immediate financial assistance.

Community Fund for Immigrant Wellness

Serves diverse immigrant communities throughout Philadelphia by providing financial support and capacity building to organizations which promote wellness. Stewarded by a granting group of community-based, immigrant serving organizations and local philanthropic organizations who are deeply committed to shifting power dynamics between philanthropy and service organizations by utilizing a transparent shared decision making process.

PA Immigrant Family Unity Project:

A collaborative of nonprofit organizations in Pennsylvania formed in order to achieve universal representation for detained immigrants in removal proceedings in Pennsylvania.

PA is Ready! Fund

An innovative, community-led network and participatory grantmaking fund rooted in and serving diverse immigrant and refugee communities across Pennsylvania. The overarching goal of the PA is Ready! network is to ensure that immigrant communities have the skills and resources necessary for building safe and welcoming communities that promote all resident's well-being.
