Philanthropy Network COVID-19 Event Policy

Philanthropy Network is looking forward to returning to in-person events but recognizes the risks involved. The safety of all attendees is a shared responsibility of Philanthropy Network, our partners, and each attendee. Philanthropy Network is doing its part by monitoring and complying with local, state, and federal guidelines to the extent applicable and implementing our own safety protocols. Each attendee must also do their part by adhering to applicable regulations and all health and safety guidelines, policies, and protocols implemented by Philanthropy Network.

Watch out for Symptoms
According to the United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), people sick with COVID-19 report experiencing a wide range of mild to severe symptoms. Below are some of the most common reported symptoms. Philanthropy Network stresses that if you are experiencing any of these symptoms or have been exposed to anyone experiencing these symptoms, you must: 1) stay home, self-isolate, and do not attend the event; and 2) contact a healthcare professional for treatment.

People with the following symptoms may have COVID-19:*

• Fever or chills • Cough • Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing • Fatigue	• Muscle or body aches • Headache • New loss of taste or smell • Sore throat	• Congestion or runny nose • Nausea or vomiting • Diarrhea

This list does not include all possible symptoms. Please consult the CDC website for a full list of COVID-19 symptoms.

Philanthropy Network's Policies and Protocols:
Philanthropy Network's current plan includes numerous protocols to ensure the safest event experience possible for our attendees. Along with the venues COVID-19 protocols, Philanthropy Network will:
   • Monitor and meet the latest safety local, state, and federal guidelines.

- Provide hand-sanitizer.
- Modifications to event space that help mitigate risks such as networking areas and limited or packaged food/beverage service.
- Follow-up with all attendees if attendees report becoming ill during or immediately following the conference.

Attendee Code of Conduct:

Philanthropy Network seeks to promote healthy behaviors and maintain a healthy environment to reduce the risk of spreading COVID-19 while at the event. We appreciate your cooperation in ensuring a safe and healthy environment for you, fellow attendees, and others. Masks are not mandatory, but we encourage the use of masks during the event.

To attend the event, please adhere to the following:
- I agree that entry into the event is conditional upon having received the COVID vaccine and booster or having received a negative COVID-19 test at least 36 hours before the event start date.
- I agree not to attend if I, a member of my household or a guest traveling with me feels sick.
- I will not attend if I, a member of my household or a guest traveling with me tests positive for COVID-19 or has been exposed to someone with symptoms or someone with suspected /confirmed COVID-19.
- I agree to wash my hands regularly with soap and water and to use hand sanitation stations.
