THEME: INCREASING EQUITYCo.act Detroit: How Collaborative Action is Cultivated Through People and PlaceNicole de Beaufort, Allandra Bulger - Detroit, MI

This session showcases the unique and remarkable way Co.act Detroit engaged a regional nonprofit community in co-creating a shared concept of community transformation and collective action. Attend this session to learn how organizations and community leaders authored the organizational name, focal areas of impact, key values and brand architecture.

Bolstering Hospital's Collective Impact with Congruent PartnersMichaell Rose, DrPH, L.C.S.W. - Hoag Memorial Hospital Presbyterian - Newport Beach, CA

The challenge of what a nonprofit hospital can do to lower inequities and build community capacity sparked the development of the Melinda Hoag Smith Center for Healthy Living (MHSCHL). The Center was created to improve the health and care for those vulnerable communities, by providing free care and preventive services for the entire person – mind, body, and spirit.

2

THEME: INNOVATIVE USE OF LAND AND REAL ESTATECommunity Investment Trust: A Path to Neighborhood Ownership of Real EstateJohn Haines, Mercy Corps - Portland, OR

Session will explain how the first of its kind investment product in commercial-retail real estate aimed at low-income, first-time investors was created, and how it can be replicated. No other financial product or community development model has been designed like the Community Investment Trust. It is both an inclusive wealth-building path for individuals and a community economic development strategy. Learn about the CIT's unique advantages.

Tenant-led Preservation of the 23rd Avenue Community Building in Oakland, CaliforniaSteve King, Oakland Community Land Trust - Oakland, CA

The 23rd Avenue Community Building is a vibrant mixed-use cultural hub in the center of Lower San Antonio consisting of apartments, commercial storefronts, and a community garden. It's grown into an important hub for Queer and Trans People of Color-led organizations. Hear how a collaborative purchase of property demonstrates a replicable strategy of community-led development on community-owned land.

3

THEME: IMPACT IN RURAL AREASThe Clearinghouse: Stop, Collaborate, & ListenBrad Wood & Margo Olson, River Valley Resources - Madison, IN

Working together, we can develop solutions based on collective insight, wisdom and creativity. There is an emphasis on building strong, trusting and respectful relationships while realizing that there's more than enough for all of us if we're willing to sit at the same table.

Stumbling Upon Success "How We Created Shared Space Without Even Knowing It"Pamela Geddes & Angie Smith, Alberta Parenting for the Future Foundation - Stony Plain, Alberta

We have all heard "if you build it they will come", but we were not told how to keep them and keep them happy. Having a strong vision is good, have a strong shared vision is imperative. Through humor, photographs and anecdotes, we will share how we use social innovation to create a space that respects inclusion, cultural awareness and diversity and encourages and values input from all tenants.

THEME: IN-DEPTH COLLABORATIONThe Role of Empathy and Experimentation in CollaborationHeather Hiscox - Pause for Change

Empathy and experimentation are vital steps to form impactful collaborative partnerships. Learn how with simple and new questions you can ask, you can deeply understand what problems you solve for your collaborative partners and then how to test assumptions that are embedded within your collaborative partnerships.

A Greater Synthesis: A Symposium to Advance Shared GoalsLauren Andraski, Ezzie Dominguez - Posner Center - Denver, CO

This session, featuring the Posner Center for International Development in Denver, will share their work to develop, execute, and evaluate their first-ever Annual Symposium. They'll share ways in which they were resourceful, how they pushed boundaries to create an atypical and engaging event, highlight the wins of such an event, and help you think about how a major convening may be a useful tool for advancing your mission.
